

Universal infrared remote control

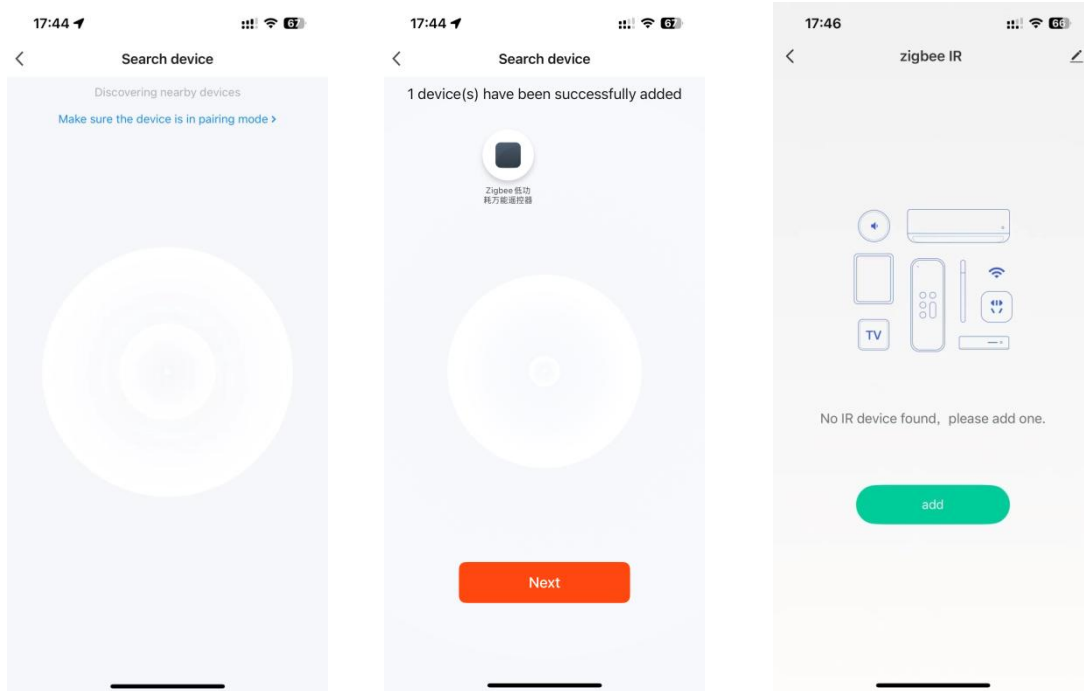

R11 R4Z use introduction

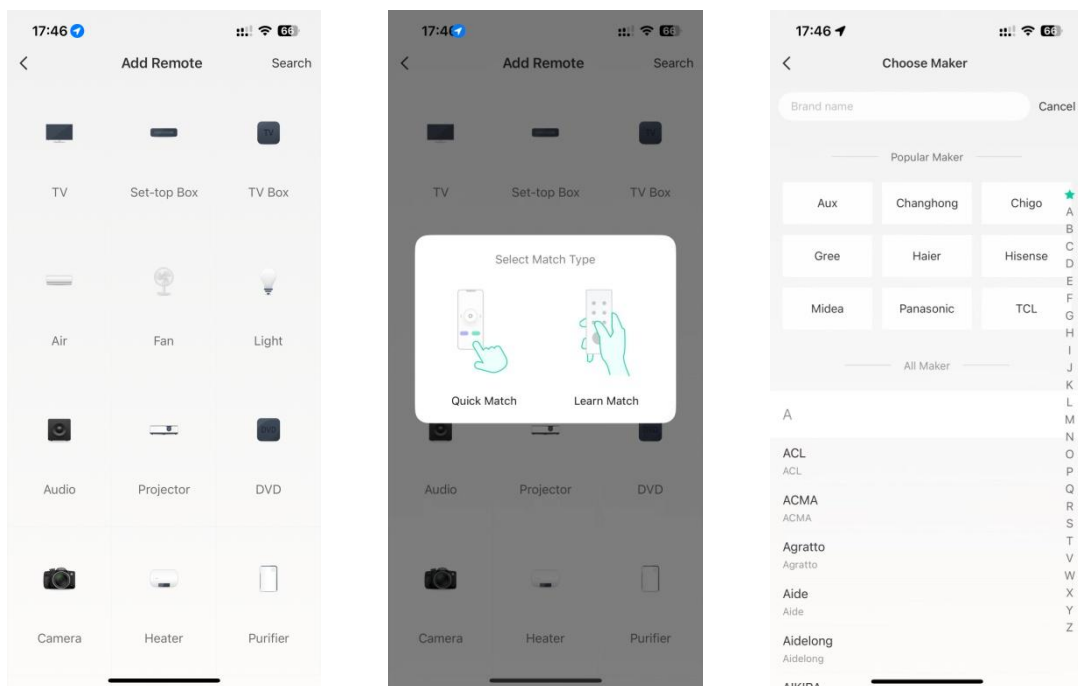

Download the Smart Life APP

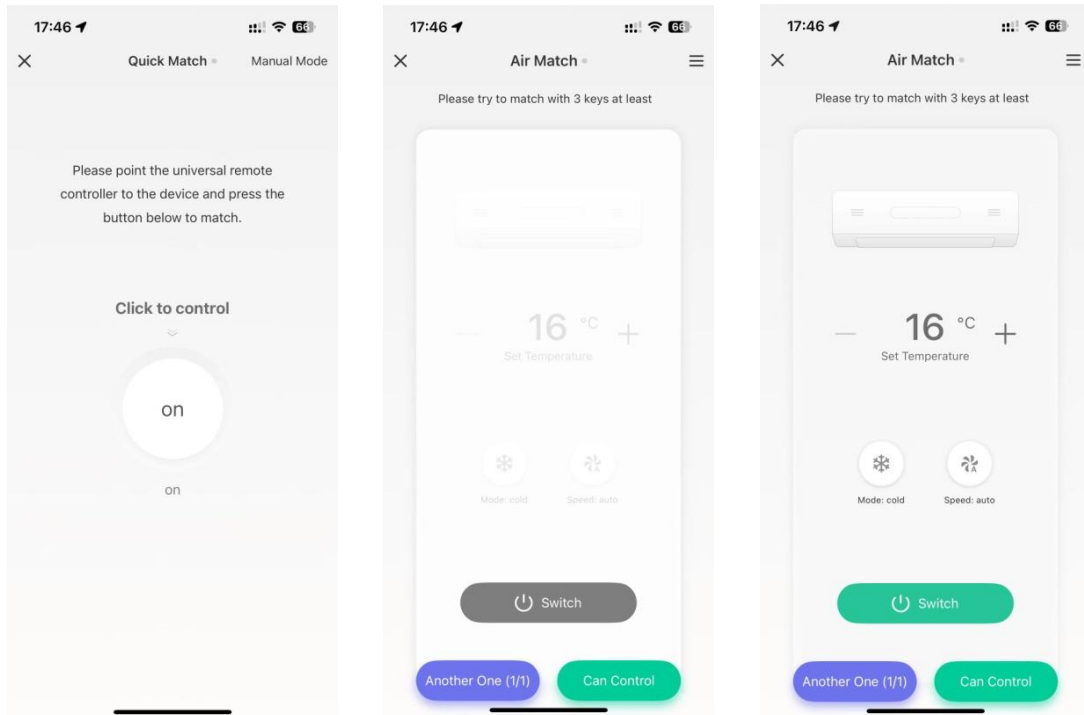

- Open the Smart Life APP, Click on Wired Gateway to start searching for devices, Confirm that the blue light of the universal infrared remote control is blinking rapidly.

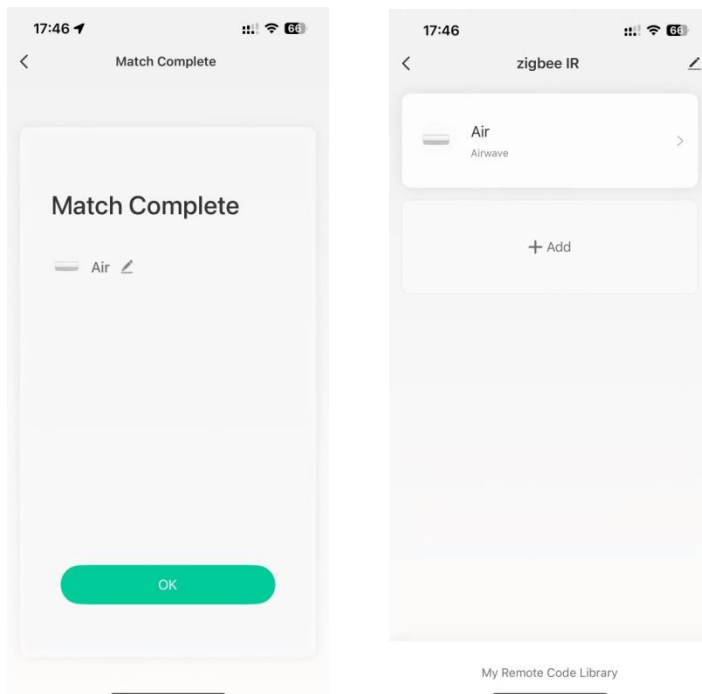

- Wired Gateway Do not leave this page while searching for devices, Until the universal infrared remote control appears inside the wired gateway.

- Select the type of household appliance, Selective fast matching, Choose the brand of household appliance.

- Press the switch button to see if you can control the appliance, Press the 3 control buttons again to check whether all of them can be controlled, If the device can be controlled, the device is successfully added.

- Appliances will be displayed in the control page, and you can change the name of the appliance.