1. Warranty Term

This product is covered under a 1-Year OR 30,000-Mile Limited Manufacturer Warranty, whichever comes first. The warranty expires immediately upon either reaching the 12-month period after retail purchase, or the vehicle accumulating 30,000 driving miles on this blower motor assembly. Once either limit is reached, the warranty coverage terminates, even if the other condition has not been met.

2. What Is Covered

Tnyeobae warrants to the original purchaser that the AC Heater Blower Motor Assembly shall be free from defects in materials and workmanship under normal daily street driving use during the warranty period. Covered manufacturing defects include:

- Abnormal motor stalling or power failure under normal operation
- Factory defects on fan cage, bearing and wiring harness
- Assembly malfunction caused by original production flaws

If the fault is confirmed as a manufacturing defect within valid warranty term, Tnyeobae will provide a free replacement blower motor unit.

3. What Is Not Covered

This warranty does NOT cover any of the following situations, even within the time/mileage limit:

- Damage from improper installation, wiring error, vehicle circuit overload or unauthorized modification
- Use for racing, off-road, commercial heavy-duty fleet vehicles beyond daily passenger driving
- Water intrusion, collision damage, foreign object clogging inside the blower housing
- Normal wear and tear from long-term aging, dust accumulation
- Secondary losses including vehicle repair labor, rental car fees, lost revenue
- Units installed on incompatible vehicle models or right-hand-drive vehicles

4. How to Make a Warranty Claim

To apply for warranty replacement, customers must submit all below materials:

1. Original Amazon order screenshot as proof of purchase date
2. Clear photos and short video recording proving the blower motor malfunction
3. Current vehicle mileage reading photo for mileage verification

All warranty inquiries must be submitted via Amazon Buyer-Seller Messaging: Locate your corresponding Amazon order page → Enter Order Details → Click Contact Seller to send us your claim.

We do NOT accept warranty requests via external email or third-party platforms.

5. Legal Disclaimer

This limited warranty is the exclusive remedy provided by Tnyeobae. We shall not be responsible for any indirect, incidental or consequential damages arising from product use. This warranty only applies to left-hand drive matching vehicles listed on the product detail page.
